Dear Admissions Committee,

Respected Sir,

I have known Robert for more than eight years, both as a good friend and as a neighbor. I was very surprised and troubled to hear about the recent case, and I feel obligated as a well-wisher and friend to write this letter as he is a good and solid person at heart, known for his selfless acts and proactive and helpful nature in our apartment community. I hope the court will take my recommendation of his character into consideration before deciding on a ruling and show some leniency.

Robert has been a good friend and always been there for us in troubled times. When I had to take my son to emergency care, he watched my dog and sent flowers and soft toys to him. He cooked food for us so that we can concentrate on our son and was instrumental in bringing us back to normal after we came back home. He runs errands for old Miss Sandra whenever he can and is the person people in the apartment call if they are in some trouble. He was assisting my neighbor when he lost his job financially and always shoveled your snow when you are sick. He is never impulsive or rude but soft and gentle. His thoughtful nature and supportiveness have touched our lives in many ways.

While I am shocked that he was drunk while driving, I am sure he will take full responsibility for his actions and given a chance, he would never repeat it. When I reached out to him, he was very sorry for his actions. I sincerely hope you consider his character while sentencing him. He is a man of honor and a valuable member of our community.

Please reach out to me in case you have any questions. I am also available for cross-examination. I am a busy dentist, but I can always make time for Robert's case.

Yours Sincerely,
